

Luxury Apartments Now Half Filled

Crescent Scottsdale Quarter, a luxury apartment facility, is currently 52% occupied with 62% of units preleased. The six-story building features studios, one- and two-bedroom units and 56 penthouse units. The property offers an amenity package with a pet salon, heated and chilled saltwater pool, wine tasting room and two-story fitness center and barre/yoga studio. The community also hosts regular social events with partner businesses from The Quarter such as dinners, cooking demonstrations and spa nights. Crescent Scottsdale Quarter is among the first multifamily residential properties west of the Mississippi for developer Crescent Communities. Headquartered in Charlotte, North Carolina, Crescent's multifamily group has 5,900 units under construction or in planning/pre-development. Crescent Scottsdale Quarter is managed in partnership with Arizona-based developer and luxury apartment management company, Mark-Taylor Residential.
